South Breeze Won Handicap at Fair Grounds From Edgardo and W. B. Gates in Fair Time.

PERLA RAN LIKE A FILLY OF CLASS.

J. C. Ghio's Merry Monarch Youngster Performed Brilliantly at Fair Grounds.

SOUTH BREEZE WAS IN HUMOR.

Mr. Cahn's Old Mare Won Over a Long Distance in Nice Style -Custus Beat a Field of Maidens.

As was forecasted in yesterday's Repub-Ho, winners were not easy to select at the Fair Grounds yesterday. Yet many of the clock sharps, who hang about the track during working hours, got off well with the first race, when they landed on Perla, J. C. Chio's fast mare, at 8 to 1.

Don Alvaro's fizzle of the previous day made bettors chary about going to the Merry Monarch filly. She won all the way and displayed surprising speed. Perla is quite evidently a filly of more than aver quite evidently a filly of more than average class.

Hemloch, another good thing, went over in the second event. He won handily, a bad race, in 1:17. Bob Jones owns him. He was heavily played.

Schreiber turned too beautiful fillies loose in the third. Amos Turney started a better one. The Schreiber youngsters were Eugenia B., a splendid Balgowan filly, out of Bohwalbe's dam, Gratitude. She is a beauty. Off well, she seemed to be a winner, but Jehane, the Turney filly, broke away back, went past her, ond won by five lengths in 184, excellent time. Signorino, the Sain Park Ridge filly, full sister to Mindera, and half sister to Sarner, also went in here. She is a perfect specimen of a race horse, but ran a very bad race.

SOUTH BREEZE IN GOOD HUMOR.

SOUTH BREEZE IN GOOD HUMOR. SOUTH BREEZE IN GOOD HUMOR.

South Breeze was in one of her good humors and won her race one and oneeighth mile in 1:25, galloping. It was a nice race for the Cahn mare. Edgardo, a 3-to-1shou, was second, and W. B. Gates, who ran one of his best races, third. Pharaon made a wonderful showing here, or rather his owners showed him up, perhaps foolishly, if betting probabilities are to be considered. He ran a close fourth, running over horses at the end. He could have been dropped into a cheap selling race for $400 and won at a long price.

KINGSTELLE SPILLED THE BEANS.

Every one fancied that the fifth race was and won at a long price.

KINGSTELLE SPILLED THE BEANS.

Every one fancled that the fifth race was a two-horse one between Nearest and Audiphone, who were held at 4 to 5 and 8 to 5 respectively. Kingstelle, a 10-to-1 shot, broke it up. She laid away from the pace and came along in the stretch, and won, handily, a real nice race. Nearest and Audiphone ran to a head finish, Nearest getting the best of it. It was the third time-that these two horses met on equal terms. Each time Nearest has beaten Audiphone by a head. This is form of a miraculous nature. The secret of it is that both have been trying hard. Neither Mr. Flippen, who trains Audiphone, or Mr. Hughes, who owns Nearest, is around stalling with the eld complaint: 'Now, you know you feel good one day and bad the next. That is just like a horse."

The sixth race went to Custus, who ran a rather clever six furlongs in 1:15½, after leading most of the way and disposing of challenge after challenge. He won, rather handily and seemed to be soing away from T. E. Hayes's good colt, Outlaw, who was off bedly. Custus is probably a nice kind of colt.

IMMORTELLE TO WIN FIRST RACE. Mr. Nolan's Filly Should Show Big Mr. Nolan's Filly Should Show Big Field Way Home in First Event. Immortelle and First One are favored by the weights in the initial race, which will take place at the Fair Grounds to-day. Im-mortelle is a gamish little plater, who will go on, though she has been running in sprints. Margie S. ran a decent race behind Nearest and Audiphons last week. She will run another good one to-day. The race lies there.

mortelle is a gamiss little plater, who will go on, though she has been running in sprints. Margie S. ran a decent race belind Nearest and Audiphone last week. She will run another good one to-day. The race lies libere.

On his race with Imboden at Little Rock, Ascot is a better colt than the Parrish stake winner. He should have beaten Imboden that day. Matt Wadleigh elongs to Mr. Schreiber's manager, Mr. Kerwin Dorice belongs to the master of Woodlands. So one or the other must scratch. If Wadleigh stays in he has a great chance to win. He has been improving, is good and fast to begin in the big field. Maggie Wck is sure to go well. She is a most consistent filly.

EREMA VS. SIR CHRISTOPHER.
The third event looks like a race between Sir Christopher and Erema, Christopher is good just now. His last effort, a victory, was not any too creditable. His sore legs will note be hurt by the Fair Grounds track. Erema is said to be ready. Small as she is she does not dislike weight. It is hard to pick a third one in this lot, but Legation is a good so the sure to make her run Mr. Honigs mare is a big one, fast and game. She was not any too creditable. You can't hide the style of a well-tailored suit. It's plainly shown in the snug fit of the collar, the "lay" of the lapels, the proper curve of the sleeve, the "hang" of the trousers. carries a bad one to the races. If Galoit is a good one he can win here. Pettijohn's last race was a brilliant one for him. He can win with consistency in this event. Kitty Clyde is far from good when Socapa can run her to a head.

THE WIZARD A GOOD THING. The Wizard looks like a rare good thing in the sixth event. He has been doing more than nicely down the line, and may improve here, as most of the Southern horses have done this spring. Charley Ross made a new horse of Joe Lesser. He has probably done the same thing for Terra Incognita, Hence that old fellow will be rapping at the door. The Wizard is a really clever sort of horse, and a bet on him should not go far wrong.

Cincinnati, May 5.-The Reds of Kelley, who stall about the little town situated on the banks of the murky Ohlo River. managed to scratch in a fluke victory today when they tanned the tribe of Dono-

The Reds succeeded in winning four consecutive victories from the pets of Patsy. but if the World's Fair City bunch had been lined up in their regular order and had they wielded the willow as they did in their previous games, the Reds would have been away up. The Cardinals encountered chilly, miserable weather here, Farrell, Nichols, Murphy, Smoot and Barclay have bunked in the hospital ward since the club's seige.

a game as one would care to see. He had everything necessary to win any kind of an old game, but his teammates batted like : bunch of wind-broken amateurs behind him. Hackett deserved to win. The Cardina line-up was again twisted into a puzzle, "Hummer" Smoot, who has been playing "Hummer' Smoot, who has been playing under pressure for three days, was too weak to leave his bed to-day. His knee bothered him. Manager Donovan, desperate to win, coaxed the half-well Johnny Farrell into center field and "conned" the indisposed kid Nichols into going to first. The club again put up a spectacular fielding game, and with anything like a bit of luck would have won hands down.

HAHN IN THE BOX.

Noodles Hahn opposed Hackett. He did not display anything worth talking about. Still the St. Louis lads could not bunch their hits long enough to shove over the necessary runs.

The Cardinals secured five bingles. Brain clouted one out in the initial event, but it availed nothing. In the fifth Donovan soaked Hahn's southpaw slants against the left-field fence for two bases, the bail bounding back to Kelley. He died at the plate, however, on Hackett's grasser to Corcoran. Hit three for St. Louis came up in the seventh. After Nichols went out to Donlin, Hackett hit the sphare for two bases.

Otto Williams proved an casy out; Beckley to Hahn at first, Jack Ryan drew four balls. Johnny Farrel troited to the rubber with two on the sacks when a hit would tie the score, Johnny tried his utmost and nearly succeeded. He smashed the ball against the right-field hieacher, but Mike Donlin, after a hard run, copped it, ending the inning, it was a case of hard luck all the way.

clean tap to left sent Brain across the tally plate, with the Cardinals first and only run.

Manager Donovan boosted a high foul near first, which Beckley camped under. Nichols hit a ripping earther to Magoon at third, which the Red failed to get over to Backley in time. Hackett waited out four wide ones, filling the bases. With only three runs to tie and four to con, the atmosphere looked roseate for the Missourians. Otto Williams, the boy wonder, was carded to handle the bat. He walked up with an air of condence, but did not deliver the goods. He tried awfully hard when he stung a 'Hahn' bender into deep right. The ball sailed almost into the stands, but the fast, ever-ready "Mickey" Donlin was there and he mitted the ball, ending the game. The three runners had crossed the plate, but they did not count.

The Cardinals lost because they could not rap out the needed bingles in the last two innings. Hahn was up in the air then, but the visitors could not get the swats.

Manager Donovan and his tribe departed this evening at 9 o'clock for St. Louis.

In the last inning the tribe of Patsy made another bold bid to win the last tilt. Jimmle Burke opened with an out to Seymour. Davy Brain clouted the leather against the left-field fence, but it bounded back far enough to hold him at second. Barclay was there with the much-wanted hit, and his clean tap to left sent Brain across the tally plate, with the Cardinals' first and only run.
